FROM THE DIRECTOR

With Gratitude

To Dustin, thank you for always listening, reminding me every show has ups and downs, and always believing in me. I couldn't do it without you.

To the Monroe County School District, thank you for partnering with The Key Players to bring this show and its message to students throughout the Keys.

To Daliana Goins, thank you for supporting our students' health and safety, listening to a crazy idea, and helping make it a reality for our high schools.

To Mr. Pais, thank you for continually encouraging the arts and supporting me as I create and teach. You make it a privilege to be part of KLS.

To Ms. Lietaert, Wood, and the Coral Shores staff, thank you for sharing your beautiful space for rehearsals, set builds, and performances with The Key Players.

To Rhonda Crutcher, Rebecca Bertucci, and Caitlin Yong, thank you for your collaboration and love of theater to help bring this show to students across the Keys.

To the Florida Keys Council of the Arts, thank you for your generous $10,000 grant and your continued investment in the arts and our students.

To Sue Woltanski and the Upper Keys Rotary Club, thank you for your generous support of the arts and our students.

To Caiti, Kenny, John, Rick, and Ken, thank you for always being willing to help and for going above and beyond in so many ways.

To Jonelle, as always, thank you for your help and support and making sure we had what we needed. It is truly appreciated.

To Erin Perchalski, thank you for always being willing to make art for me—and for having a great reason when you can't! Without you, I literally cannot see the forest for the trees—or, in this case, the orchard.

To Cindy Smith, thank you for doing absolutely everything—photos, props, posters, social media, and being my biggest hype woman. I'm especially grateful this story was meaningful to you and helped in some small way with your own story.

To Jessica Garcia, thank you for keeping our social media moving and always jumping in with a paintbrush, a helping hand, or whatever else was needed.

To Javier Exposito, thank you for always being there and for bringing your brilliance to our lighting design. Watching you grow into the person you are—and seeing Lincoln and Cooper join you backstage—makes me incredibly proud.

To Bob "The Builder," thank you for being such an important part of my theater journey. Your knowledge, creativity, and love of theater shaped so much of what I do. I'll always be grateful for what you've taught me and the shows we've built.

To my cast and crew, thank you for your hard work, dedication, trust, and heart. It has been an honor to bring this story to life with you.

And to anyone I may have missed, please forgive my show-week brain! Know that I see you, appreciate you, and am grateful for everything you contributed to this production.
